30-man specialist team for Avaya products and solutions honoured - Avaya names T&N Telekom & Netzwerk as its Business Partner of the Year

WALLISELLEN, 3rd October 2007 – Avaya Inc. (NYSE: AV), one of the globally leading providers of communication systems, software and services, has presented T&N Telekom & Netzwerk AG with its award as „Business Partner of the Year“ for the second time. With this award, Avaya pays tribute to dedication and specialist know-how that have been shown over the last year by the system integrator with head office in Dietlikon/ZH.

T&N realises complete IP telephony and wireless communication solutions, applications for Contact Centres and Unified-Messaging applications, and currently deploys more than 30 employees in the Avaya environment. „The team has also successfully implemented an impressive number of projects in the IP telephony and Contact Centre area during the last year“, said Peter Widmer, Channel Manager at Avaya, in praise of the services of T&N.

The wide-ranging capability of T&N, which extends over the complete Avaya product portfolio, had a positive influence on the selection of the Business Partner of the Year. The total amount of jointly achieved sales and the large number of technical certifications is also taken into consideration in the placing of this award. T&N is the only business partner of Avaya in Switzerland that has been awarded the status of a Gold Partner.

„I enjoy working together with Avaya. Because our professionalism in project management and our capability of integrating applications, mobile communication and business processes into the telecommunications brings our clients further“, said Bruno Schmed, Divisional Manager for Avaya solutions at T&N.
